THIRTEEN NEGROES KILLED IN RIOT

Racial Clash Has Now Reached Acute Stage.

TROOPS LEAVE; ORDERED BACK

Latest Report States that All Is Quiet at Scooba, Miss.—Governor Vardaman Thinks Reports of Riot Have Been Greatly Exaggerated.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 27.—With the number of dead placed at 15, the racial trouble prevailing throughout Kemper county, Mississippi, during the past several days, has reached a most acute stage, and unless quickly checked, a race war of serious proportions will result.

Quiet had been restored at Wahalak where the first outbreak occurred on Monday and shortly after the departure of the troops sent to quell the disturbance, rioting broke out afresh at Scooba, a few miles south of that place, and during the afternoon and night five negroes are reported to have been killed. Of this latter clash, reports are conflicting, some reports placing the number of killed and wounded at a score.

The troops were immediately ordered to the scene, and left Meridian at an early hour Wednesday morning.

At Wahalak five negroes were killed before the arrival of the troops.

At Crawford, Miss., Conductor B. N. Harrison, of the Mobile and Ohio railway, was shot and fatally wounded by a negro late Tuesday night.

The negro in turn was shot by Harrison, and before he could escape was killed by a posse. Three companions who were with the negro, fled to the woods. One of these was later captured and shot to death. The others are being pursued.

Late Tuesday night a negro became involved in an altercation with two white men aboard a train near Artesia, Miss., and when the station was reached, was taken from the train and killed.

The troops sent to Scooba Wednesday morning are composed of a company of infantry and a battery of artillery. Besides the troops an organized party of forty men from Columbus are on the scene to assist in quelling the riot.

In a dispatch to Governor Vandaman, Sheriff Troutt, of Kemper county, described the situation as critical.

Memphis, Dec. 27.—C. H. Langston, the railroad agent at Scooba, Miss., wired the Associated Press at 10:30 this morning that all is quiet in Scooba and vicinity. A squad of 32 soldiers arrived there early today, but so far have found nothing to do.

Jackson, Miss., Dec .27.—Governor Vardaman said this morning that his latest advices from Scooba were that the reported race riot had been exaggerated. He said he would hold the militia there, however, until he was sure all had quieted down.

Gave His Life to Save Woman.

Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 27.—John N. Bellamin was shot and killed here by Charles Church. Church had been drinking and while quarreling with his wife, drew his revolver and attempted to shoot her. She screamed for help. Benjamin, who had a room in the same apartment house, rushed to her assistance. As he entered the door, Church fired four times in rapid succession, each bullet lodging in Benjamin's body. The wounded man was carried to the hospital, but died shortly after reaching there.

Shot Father; Saved Mother.

Cincinnati, Dec. 27.—With money he had saved to give his mother a Christmas gift, Henry Siebel, 16 year of age, bought a revolver with which he shot and fatally wounded his step-father, Henry Bricker, 44 years old. According to the boy, his step-father threatened to kill his mother, and he bought the revolver to protect her. Brinker attacked his wife with a hatchet, when the boy pulled the revolver from his pocket and fired.

BOY MANGLED BY LEITER AUTO

Joseph Leiter and His Mother Were in the Car at Time.

Washington, Dec. 27.—The sixty-horse-power touring car of Joseph Leiter, in which were riding Mr. Leiter, Mrs. Levi Z. Leiter and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Remington, of New York, ran down and instantly killed Samuel West, a 14-year-old negro boy. Mrs. Leiter and Mr. Remington were greatly affected by the accident. Charles H. Raymond, the chauffeur, was arrested and the entire party went to the Tenth precinct police station, where Raymond was paroled in custody of an officer in order that Mr. Leiter and his party might be conveyed to their residence.

The accident happened on Columbia Heights, near Fourteenth street and Columbia road. The big machine was closely following a street car and just before Columbia street was reached, the negro jumped off and was almost immediately struck by the automobile. The wheels ran over the boy's head. The machine was stopped and Joseph Leiter picked the body up, at the same time directing that physicians be summoned. Life, however, was extinct. Mrs. Leiter immediately took steps to locate the parents of the boy.

After leaving his mother and guests at the Leiter home, Mr. Leiter, together with his chauffeur and the officer, went direct to the home of Coroner Nevitt, who, after listening to the facts in the case, expressed himself as willing to admit Raymond to bail. This accordingly was given.

Dr. Nevitt, while entertaining the view that the accident was unavoidable, deemed it necessary to hold an inquest.

NO XMAS GIFTS, HE SUICIDES.

Could Not Face His Little Ones Without Presents.

Macon, Ga., Dec. 27.—The discovery of a laudanum bottle under the bed William Nutting was found dead in the Stewart hotel revealed the fact that death followed from his swallowing fully half an ounce of the drug.

Clerk W. W. Thompson, on breaking open the door, saw the man upon the bed and made an examination of him. Later the bottle was discovered, and, although there was nothing left other than this to tell the sad story of how the man came to his death, the evidence was taken as sufficient to establish the suicide theory.

He was a traveling representative of the Tennessee Copper company, and just returned off the road to spend the holidays with his family at the home on Walnut street.

Despondency marked every movement of the man before he entered the house. The hotel clerks believe that he suicided because unable to give the little ones their usual presents.

Wants Old Law Enforced.

Washington, Dec. 27.—Representative John Wesley Gaines, of Tennessee, who is in favor of enacting a new statute providing that members of congress shall forfeit $13.70 for every day they are absent, announces that as a result of a search through the old documents at the capitol, he has found that a statute, passed in 1856, which prohibits absent members from retaining their salaries unless they are kept from their official duty by illness, has never been repealed. An attempt was made to enforce this law, he said, in the fifty-second congress which resulted in a strenuous effort to repeal the statute in 1894, when the Democrats had control of the house. Representative Gaines will call the attention of congress to the statute, he says, and insist that it be enforced.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 27.—The cotton harvest in Central Asia is extremely good, 17,000 car loads instead of the usual 12,000 being available for export. Railroads will require special facilities to transport the cotton.

ON THE SOUUTHERN RAILROAD

One Trainman Was Killed and Three of the Crew Injured—None of the Passengers Were Hurt in the Accident.

Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 27.—Train No. 33, on the Southern railway, a ington to Jacksonville... snowpsh-00 through passenger enroute from Washington to Jacksonville, moving at a high rate of speed, was wrecked Tuesday 5 miles north of this city.

The dead:

John Holmes, negro fireman.

The seriously injured are Engineer Urquhart, of Savannah, scalded by escaping steam; J. A. Kramer, express messenger; J. E. Ruben, negro express helper.

No passengers were injured.

When news of the wreck reached Jacksonville, many physicians and ambulances were hurried to the scene. The dead and injured were removed to the city hospital, where everything possible was done for their relief.

The wreck was due to an error on part of the man in the tower, from which the switches and sidings on the road are controlled. He turned the derailing switch in front of the flyer, causing the engine to turn turtle. The express car was also thrown from the truck.

As the locomotive left the track Engineer Urquhart applied the emergency brakes, and the rear of the train of cars came to a sudden stop before any one of the passenger cars left the rails. Aside from a severe shaking up, none of the passengers were injured.

Eighteen Persons Hurt in Wreck.

Springfield, O., Dec. 27.—Eastbound Big Four passenger train ran into the rear of a freight train in the western part of the city. The list of injured includes 18 passengers, none seriously. The crew of the passenger jumped.

One person, a flagman named Weatherspoon, who was asleep in the caboose, was killed instantly. No one but Weatherspoon was injured. The engine was derailed and an express car demolished. The coal car was shattered. The mail car mounted the floor of the express car and ran into the engine.

E. S. Larrimore Accidentally Shoots and Kills His Niece.

Atlanta, Dec. 27.—A pistol in the hands of her uncle fatally wounded Miss Tymma R. Freeman, aged 16 years, at 38 Strong street. She died later at the Grady hospital.

Miss Freeman lived with her uncle, E. S. Larrimore, and he and her aunt raised her, both her parents having died several years ago.

During a Christmas tree celebration Miss Freeman and her uncle amused themselves by discharging blank cartridges from a pistol. When the blank cartridges had all been exhausted, she secured some loaded ones, and Mr. Larrimore proceeded to place them in the pistol.

They were standing in the cook room at the time, Miss Freeman being behind her uncle as he handled the weapon.

In some way a cartridge exploded just as the young woman stepped in front of her uncle, and the bullet struck her in the abdomen. She sank to the floor and remained thus without speaking for some time. When she spoke she begged her aunt not to worry about the accident.

Miss Freeman was conveyed to the Grady hospital in an ambulance.

Negro Troopers Shoot Up a Car.

Leavenworth, Kans., Dec. 27.—Fourteen soldiers, the majority of whom are troopers of the Ninth cavalry (negro) were arrested on a street car in connection with the riot, when a number of shots were fired into a loaded car and several passengers slightly injured by broken glass. Captain Walsh, of the Ninth cavarly, is making an investigation into the causes of the trouble, which is believed to be similar to that which resulted in the discharge of three companies of the Twenty-fifth infantry at Fort Reno recently. There is apprehension among the negro troops at the fort over the matter, lest it assume some of the importance of the Brownsville, Tex., affair. The affair has been reported to Washington.

London Covered with Snow.

London, Dec. 27.—The British metropolis is covered with two inches of snow and advices from the country district announced that deep drifts are interfering with the distribution of the mails and railway traffic. Several schooners have been wrecked off the coast during blinding snow storms. The steamer Hazledene hit a rock and sank off Cloughey. Life boat men succeeded in rescuing the crew after an exciting experience. Another life boat made a similar rescue of the crew of the schooner Ring Leader, wrecked off Dungen.

Officer Kills Desperate Negro.

Covington, Ga., Dec. 27.—The negroes of Mansfield, Ga., while holding a church celebration were incited to riotous conduct by a drunken negro by the name of Jim Key. In order to prevent trouble, Marshal Jno. Cavendar went out to arrest the negro. Jim Key vigorously protested, and finally threatened the marshal's life, by making a murderous attack on him with a knife. In self-defense Marshal Cavendar shot and instantly killed the negro.

Officers Shoot Bad Negro.

Abbeville, Ga., Dec. 27.—Deputy Sheriff Lee Smith shot Jebb Hartley, a negro, who resisted arrest. Smith had a warrant for Harley, and when he attempted to arrest him he resisted and swore he would not be arrested. Smith drew his pistol and shot him through the leg, making a flesh wound which caused him to submit at once. This was the only trouble that has occurred to mar the Christmas holidays.

Charred Bodies Found in Debris.

New Orleans, Dec. 27.—The charred bodies of Lewis Phillips and wife, both negroes, were recovered from the debris of their home here. Phillips was 50 years and his wife 60 years of age.

TERRIBLE ECZEMA ON LITTLE BOY

Mouth and Eyes Covered With Crusts—Face Itched Most Fearfully—Hands Pinned Down to Prevent Scratching

MIRACULOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"When my little boy was six months old, he had eczema. The sores extended so quickly over the whole body that we at once called in the doctor. We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and whenever he opened the mouth they began to bleed and suppurate, as did also his eyes. Hands, arms, chest, and back, in short the whole body, was covered over and over. We had no rest by day or night. Whenever he was laid in his bed, we had to pin his hands down; otherwise he would scratch his face, and make an open sore. I think his face must have itched most fearfully.

ALFONSO HOHRATH.

"We finally thought nothing could help, and I had made up my mind to send my wife with the child to Europe, hoping that the sea air might cure him, otherwise he was to be put under good medical care there. But, Lord be blessed, matters came differently, and we soon saw a miracle. A friend of ours spoke about Cuticura. We made a trial with Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and within ten days or two weeks we noticed a decided improvement. Just as quickly as the sickness had appeared it also began to disappear, and within ten weeks the child was absolutely well, and his skin was smooth and white as never before." F. Hohrath, President of the C. L. Hohrath Company, Manufacturers of Silk Ribbons, 4 to 20 Rink Alley, June 5, 1905. South Bethlehem, Pa.

G TIME EXPECTED AT BARBECUE TODAY

Hundreds of Pounds of Fine Meat Will be Served to the Public.

FAMOUS CHEFS PREPARING

Mr. Shannon Has Charge of Barbecue, While Judge Carlisle and Others Will Serve Tempting Chowder and Fish Prepared in Other Ways.

There is a big time expected in Gainesville today, because a large number of country people have been invited to participate in a grand barbecue and fish chowder, to commemorate the beginning of a new feature here—a stock show, which it is proposed to hold each year during March, to demonstrate what Alachua county can raise in the matter of live stock.

The Alachua County Stock Association will be organized today, and it is something which will prove of lasting benefit to the county, not only those who raise cattle and fine horses, but to everyone, as it means that people will be attracted here from every point. The stock show will be a feature of national reputation, and those interested in stock everywhere who intend visiting the State will come to Gainesville and make their headquarters here during the winter.

During Thursday afternoon and Thursday night Joseph A. Shannon, familiarly known as "Uncle Joe," was busy preparing the barbecue. Uncle Joe is recognized as one of the best chefs in the country on barbecued meat, and it is safe to say that those who attend the dinner today will be well pleased.

The committee, of which W. G. Richardson was chairman, has done well in soliciting subscriptions, more than one hundred dollars having been raised. With this has been purchased 250 pounds of pork, 250 pounds of beef, a large quantity of fish, and other things which go to make up a good dinner.

The barbecue will be under direct management of Mr. Shannon, while Judge J. A. Carlisle, T. L. Boulware, O. A. Robertson, Judge Colman and others will superintend the fish dinner and other courses. There will be plenty for all, and a cordial invitation is extended to the public.

The barbecue will be held on the lot adjoining the Tabernacle, Alachua avenue. There will be several speakers present who will explain the objects of the meeting and the purposes of the association.

Santa Claus' visit.

The children deserve a great deal of praise for the creditable manner in which they carried out this program, and Santa Claus showed his appreciation by stripping a beautiful tree of its load of candies, nuts and fruits, also lovely Christmas cards presented by the teachers of the Sunday school. Mr. O. P. Cannon made a short speech in which he commended the workers in the Sunday school for the work they are doing.

There were about eighty-five people present, fifty of them being children.

Child Dies of Burns.

Atlanta, Dec. 27.—Full of childish pleasures, with happy thoughts of what Santa Claus would bring, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, on the eve of Christmas, little Marie Ford, aged 8 years, climbed up to a mantlepiece to get some article, when her dress caught fire. She ran to No. 8 engine house, just across the street, where the flames were extinguished. She was taken to the hospital, where she died Christmas day.

Unfortunate Omission.

One of the most singular instances of punishment for an oversight was that shown by the commitment of an almanac maker to the Bastille in 1717. It was made out by order of the Duke of Orleans, regent during the minority of Louis V. of France, and read as follows: "Laurence d'Henry, for disrespect to King George I. in not mentioning him in his almanac as king of Great Britain." How long this unlucky almanac maker remained in prison is unknown. The register of the Bastille, examined at the time of the revolution, failed to throw any light on the subject.

FRAUDS IN OLD BOOKS.

Ancient and Rare Volumes Doctored, Restored and Imitated.

A well known collector acquired what he took to be a book published by Aldus in the year 1489. He paid $1,000 for it and believed that it was an original Aldus, because the publisher's press mark, a dolphin coiled round an anchor, appeared upon it. When the book was shown to an expert it proved to be beyond a shadow of doubt a modern antique—that is to say, it was simply a copy of the original work printed by an ingenious book fakir. So clever was the imitation that only an expert could tell it from the original and rare book. Scores of persons during recent years have bought facsimiles of rare works under the impression that they were getting the originals. Dickens' "Sunday Under Three Heads" has been faked many times and sold as original to collectors who no doubt treasure them as rarities. Genuine copies of this little book are worth a good sum, and some unscrupulous dealers, taking advantage of the circumstances, have had it reprinted and palm off the copies on unsuspecting bibliomaniacs for the genuine first edition.

Many men make a living by "doctoring" old and rare books for unscrupulous dealers. These men are adepts in the art of book restoring and are quite able to make good any part of an imperfect copy. For instance, if a rare book has a leaf missing it is handed over to a restorer, who reprints the page with battered type, the paper upon which it is printed being afterward discolored with chemicals or tobacco water in order to give it the true antique hue.

The first folio Shakespeare is, of course, of great value, and it is safe to say that every possible deception has been practiced in fitting up copies of this work for sale. At one time the manufacture of first folio Shakespeares was quite a trade. A first folio having several leaves missing had leaves inserted from the second folio, while in one case the entire play of "Cymbeline" was reprinted and inserted in a first folio. The "faked" pages were so cleverly done that several experts were at first unable to detect them when turning over the pages of the work in question. Book restorers, as a rule, are most ingenious artists, and they can produce an imitation of a page of a rare book which will deceive hundreds of collectors. One particular restorer has "doctored" more than a thousand old books during the last two years, producing pages in facsimile and supplying colophons or decorated capitals. There is not a thing wanting to make a book complete that this man cannot skillfully "fake."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty-cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." J. W. McCollum & Co.

RIDE WAS SHOT AT RECEPTION

Shortly After Wedding Mrs. Gilmore Was Badly Wounded.

Rutland, Vt., Dec. 27.—The officials of Ira, Vt., began an investigation Tuesday of the mysterious shooting of Mrs. Mary Parker Gilmore, wife of Charles Gilmore, while she was entertaining friends at a reception following her wedding.

The young bride, hearing voices outside the house, and thinking that more guests were arriving, went to the door. She saw a group of men a short distance from the doorway and spoke to them, but received no reply. Suddenly, as she stood there, two shots were fired at her in rapid succession from the darkness, one causing a compound fracture of her arm just below the right shoulder, while the other struck her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Gilmore, in the left shoulder. The latter's wound is not severe, but that of the bride is most serious.

No effort was made at the time of the shooting to pursue the assailant, but today the officials acting on a statement made by one of the men who were outside of the house, were looking for Andrew Ferrell, a young farmer. The weapon used is said to have been a rifle of large caliber, carrying heavy home-made bullets. The motive for the assault is unknown.

Mrs. Gilmore is 19 years of age, and her husband 20.

EDHOT WIRE CUT HIS THROAT

Fireman Eddins Killed in a Peculiar Manner.

Newport News, Va., Dec. 27.—A large frame and sheet iron building containing the carpenter, sheet iron and pipe fitters' shops and riggers and molders' lifts, was destroyed at the Newport News Ship Building and Dry Dock company's plant.

The Old Dominion liner, Jefferson, which is being repaired in the dry dock, was damaged to the extent of $10,000. It is estimated that the total loss will amount to $200,000, and will be fully covered by insurance.

Eddie Eddins, a fireman, was struck by a falling telegraph pole and fatally injured. His skull was crushed and a red-hot wire cut his throat.

In the carpenter shop were tool chests belonging to 200 ship builders. It is estimated that the men will lose in the neighborhood of $10,000, and their loss is not covered by insurance. General Manager Post said that it was impossible to estimate accurately the amount of the damage.

Striking Typos Given $10,000.

Chicago, Ills., Dec. 27.—The 4,000 printers who still are on strike in the United States for an 8-hour working day, received a Christmas present from the International Typographical Union of $10,000. The money was divided equally among the strikers, each receiving $2.50 in addition to their regular weekly pay. One condition goes with the union's gift—that is, the money shall be expended to purchase a Christmas turkey for the family of the man receiving it.

Kansas City, Dec. 27.—A special to the Star from Austin, Tex., says that between $8,000 and $9,000 stolen by William C. Anderson, former assistant paying teller of the First National Bank of Kansas City, who was arrested here last week, has been found in Austin. The exact amount recovered is not known, but according to the agent here of the surety company that bonded Anderson, it is sufficiently large, with that turned over by Anderson when arrested, to reimburse the company for the $10,000 bond it had given. The surety agent declined to say where the cash was found, except to say that it was locked in a box, but not in a bank.

His Throat Cut from Ear to Ear.

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 27.—John McKenzie, a master plumber of this city, was found murdered on a principal street here and there is no clew to the perpetrators of the Christmas tragedy, although the entire police force and deputy sheriffs are scouring the city. McKenzie's throat was cut from ear to ear, the head being almost severed from the body. The discovery was made by people who were on their way to attend the early services of the Catholic churches. An old knife with blood on it was found on the sidewalk near the body.

Morganton, Ga., Dec. 27.—Allison Ingram died here as the result of wounds inflicted by three shots from a pistol fired by John Harper, of this place. John Harper met Allison Ingram in the road 8 miles north of this place, near McCay, Tenn., and fired three shots into him. There had been no trouble between them. It is said Harper asked Ingram to hold up his hands, which he refused to do, whereupon Harper shot him. Harper is still at large. A reward has been offered for his arrest. Investigating Insurrection Rumor.

New York, Dec. 27.—The World Wednesday published a dispatch from Havana, which states that Governor Magoon is investigating a report that the Japanese are planning an insurrection in Februray against American rule in Cuba, the Philippines and Hawaii. The investigation, it was stated, was prompted by information received from a Cuban by the name of Pardinas, who, it is alleged, overheard five Japanese, said to be in Cuba, talking of an insurrection that was planned among the negroes of Cuba simultaneously with insurrections in the Philippines and Hawaii. The presence of the Japanese, the report says, has been noted by the secret police because they are alleged to have been taking photographs and measurements of the fortifications of Havana.

DEATH OF COL. JNO. M. BROOKE

The Lexington (Va) News, of December 20th, conveys the news of the death of the above named veteran, for whom the renowned reservation at Tampa, Fla., is said to have been named. Following is a sketch of his life, as taken from The News:

"Colonel John Mercer Brooke, emeritus professor of physics at the Virginia Military Institute, died at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon at his home opposite the Institute. The infirmities of years caused his retirement from active duties at the Institute in June, 1903. Since that time his health had gradually failed and a stroke of paralysis Friday caused his death at the age of 80 years, lacking four days.

"Colonel Brooke was one of those whose earlier years was devoted to active life in the service of the United States, which was ended by the secession of Virginia from the Union, and whose mature and latter years were devoted to other spheres of usefulness. For twenty years he was an officer in the United States navy, for four years an officer in the Confederate navy, and the remaining years of his life were devoted to the useful but more quiet occupation of an instructor of youth in the Virginia Military Institute.

"As a member of the United States navy and of the Confederate States the services were conspicuous and brought to him fame. He was of mingled Virginia and New England ancestry and a native of Florida. He was born near Tampa, Fla., where his father was then stationed, December 18, 1844, soon after that peninsula was acquired by the United States. He was the son of General George M. Brooke of Virginia, an officer of the United States army, who acquired distinction in the war of 1812. His mother was Miss Lucy Thomas, a beautiful woman of Duxbury, Mass. He was left motherless at the age of 12 and on March, 1844, when but 14 years and 9 months old, was appointed a midshipman in the United States navy, at a time when by practical experience only officers were trained for the naval service. He was assigned to duty on the Delaware, a ship of the line carrying 800 men, and commanded by Captain Farragut, later so distinguished as an admiral, for whom he always entertained a high regard. He was transferred from the Delaware to the sloop Plymouth, on which he made a three years' cruise, and returning was placed on duty for instruction at the United States Naval Academy, then just founded; from which after two years he was graduated as a member of the first class ever turned out from that institution.

"He was soon afterwards assigned to duty under Admiral Sam Phillips on the coast survey. He next served for two years, beginning in 1861, in the naval observatory at Washington. This was followed by a career of adventure in unknown seas until the opening of the Civil War. He was on an exploring expedition to the North Pacific and Behring strait under Commander Ringold and afterwards Admiral Rodgers, in which he was entrusted with important duties and explored a part of the east coast of Japan. In 1858 he was assigned to the duty of making a survey of the route across the Pan-Se between California and China, in which he made a survey of islands in the Pacific and part of the eastern coast of Japan. In August, 1859, a cyclone caused the loss of his ship, the Fenimore Cooper, on the coast of Japan, and resulted in his remaining at Tokio awaiting transportation home till the following February. During this period he formed a close acquaintance with the Japanese, which caused him greatly to admire them as a people and look with expectant eye for the advancement and renown which they have since achieved. The appreciation was evidently a mutual one, for at this time the Japanese government determined to send an embassy to the United States, and they carried out their idea of sending it on one of their own war vessels by securing the detail of Officer Brooke by Flag Officer Tatanall to aid their vessel's commander in navigating the, to them, unknown Pacific. This the young officer did most successfully, and the Japanese were forward in many ways in showing their appreciation of it, offering a purse of gold, which he declined.

"During his service in the United States navy his work by invention for the advancement of knowledge attracted attention and caused him to receive in 1860 from King William of Prussia the gold medal of science of the academy of Berlin. He was complimented by Commodore Maury in publications of the day and received distinguished consideration from scientific men in Europe and Japan. His most important discovery was the invention of the first apparatus to take soundings of the deep seas, and it was through it that the laying of the first Atlantic cable was made possible.

"On the secession of Virginia in 1861 Lieutenent Brooke resigned from the United States navy and offered his services to Governor Letcher. Upon the organization of the Confederate government he was made by Secretary of the Navy Mallory chief of ordinance and hydrography. In that position his services proved highly useful. The Confederacy was much in need of artillery and Brooke provided the drawings from which they were cast and the design of the shot and shell used in them. What was known as the 'Brooke gun' was described by Secretary of the Navy Mallory as largely the cause of effective gunnery by our ships. It is in connection with the building of the ironclad Virginia out of the hull of the old frigate Merrimac in the Norfolk navy yard that Captain Brooke is perhaps best remembered. For this he furnished designs which when carried out provided a vessel that destroyed the frigates Congress and Cumberland in Hampton Roads and revolutionized naval warfare. He applied to the construction of the Virginia the principal of extended and submerged ends, on which he was granted a patent and which was afterwards adopted in the construction of powerful foreign ships of war.

"On the reorganization of the Virginia Military Institute, October, 1865, Colonel Brooke was elected to the chair of physics, formerly occupied by General Jackson, and his life was afterwards devoted to the education of the youth of the State and section he so loved and for which he sacrificed so much. His life was one of retirement; he was quiet, almost taciturn in demeanor, but when his interest was aroused could talk most interestingly and detail many stirring scenes of early adventure. He lived to see his early judgment of the Japanese verified both in the war with China and that with Russia. Upon the Japanese he most have formed a deep impress, for by special invitation he was entertained at the Japanese embassy in Washington after the Civil war, and in like manner by their commission at the Centennial exposition at Philadelphia in 1876. The characteristics of the sturdy sailor were preserved by him to the end."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

SENATORIAL PROCRASTINATION

The Smoot case, it is quite possible, will never be decided. Senator Smoot has served more than three-fourths of his six year term with the expulsion proceedings hanging over him, which shows that the Republican members of the Senate never intended from the start to allow the matter to be brought to a vote. There are two reasons for this non-action. The first and foremost being the desire to carry out the bargain made by Perry Heath and Hanna with the Mormon leaders when Republican votes were sorely needed, that if the electoral vote of Utah was delivered for the Republican candidate the church would not be interfered with. Another reason is a much more righteous one, namely, that, under the Constitution, there can be no religious test for holding office. The Mormon leaders were very adroit in bringing this test to public attention by selecting as Senator one who does not practice polygamy, however much or little he may believe in it. Being one of the highest dignitaries of the Mormon church, or any other church, does not disqualify anyone from holding a Federal office.

The real issue of the Smoot case is whether the Endowment House oath of fealty to the Mormon church is superior to the oath of allegiance to the United States and whether Smoot upholds the secret practice of polygamy, which is unlawful.

Chancellor Day of Syracuse University denounces warmly the movement for legislative control of aggregations of wealth. He terms it "millionaire-phobia," but as Chancellor Day has been the champion of Mr. Rockefeller and the Standard Oil trust, perhaps for the purpose of controlling some of the millions, his opinion will hardly carry much weight.

When Hoops Began.

When were hoops "in" for the first time? According to Strutt, "trundling the hoop is a pastime of uncertain origin, but much in fashion at present" (1801). Dr. Murray's dictionary, incidentally remarking that the original hoop affected by boys was a barrel hoop, gives no English reference to it earlier than 1752. But the hoop was well known to ancient Greek and Roman boys, who called it a "trochus" (wheel). Their hoops were made of bronze, and representations of them on gems show that they were driven by a little hook with a wooden handle, very like the modern boy's hoop stick. This was called by the Greeks "elater" (driver) and by the Romans "clavis" (key). Sometimes the ancient hoop had bells attached to it, and modern London may be glad to be spared at least that exasperation.—London Chronicle.

Be It Ordained by the Mayor and City Council of the City of Gainesville, Florida:

Section 1—The Mayor and the City Council of the City of Gainesville, in its corporate capacity, under the authority of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Florida, entitled: "An Act Extending and Enlarging the Territorial Limits and the Powers of the City of Gainesville, a Municipal Corporation Organized and Existing in Alachua County, Florida, and Providing for the Exercise of those Powers," approved on the 9th day of May, 1905, hereby provide by ordinance for the issuance of bonds of said city, as hereinafter provided, to be known as "Municipal Bonds of the City of Gainesville," to the amount of TEN THOUSAND ($10,000) DOLLARS. The principal and interest of said bonds shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of the present standard of weight and fineness, and for the payment thereof, principal and interest, the entire taxable property of said city and the public utilities acquired and owned by said city shall stand pledged by this ordinance. Each of said bonds shall be of the following denominations, viz: Five hundred dollars. Said bonds shall be dated the 1st day of February, A. D. 1907, and each of said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, at the end of periods of six months from the date of the bond. The principal of said bonds shall become due on the following date, viz: On or before February 1st, 1917. Said bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable at the office of the City Treasurer of the City of Gainesville. The proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds, at not less than par value, and the purpose for which the issue of bonds proposed to be issued by this ordinance shall be used, is the following, viz: the money arising from the sale of said bonds, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be used to purchase and acquire the following described lot or parcel of land situated in said City of Gainesville, and more particularly described as follows, towit: All of Block 5, Range 8, according to the original survey of said city; provided, however, that none of said bonds shall be issued until after the issuance thereof, under the provisions of this ordinance, shall have been approved by a majority of the votes cast by the qualified electors of said city, at a special election which shall be held for that purpose on the 15th day of January, 1907, in accordance with this ordinance.

Sec. 2—The Mayor and City Council shall levy and collect annually such special tax on the taxable property within the corporate limits of said city as may be necessary to pay the interest on said bonds, and to provide a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds.

Sec. 3—Said bonds shall be printed or engraved with interest coupon attached, payable as by this ordinance provided. Said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor, countersigned by the President of the City Council, and attested by the City Clerk, and shall bear the corporate seal of said city, and the interest coupons shall bear an engraved or printed fac-simile of the signature of the City Treasurer. When said bonds shall have been so signed and sealed they shall be turned over to the Board of Public Works, who shall be trustee for said bonds, and shall be by said Board offered for sale to the highest and best bidder for cash, on sealed bids, but said Board shall have and reserve the right to reject any and all bids, and shall not sell any of said bonds for less than par value. The proceeds for the sale of said bonds, as soon as received by said Board, shall be turned over to and deposited with the City Treasurer of said city. Said money shall be paid out by said Treasurer on the order of the City Council of said city, for the purpose for which said bonds are authorized by this ordinance to be issued.

Sec. 4—Said bonds shall be payable to bearer and shall be delivered by said Board of Public Works only after being countersigned by the Chairman and Secretary of said Board, whereupon said bonds shall become payable to the lawful bearer thereof. It shall be the duty of the Board of Public Works, as bond trustees, when any bond is sold or issued by them, to register the same in a book to be kept for that purpose and said Board shall keep an accurate account of all bonds and coupons outstanding and of all such as may be paid.

Sec. 5—It shall be the duty of the Board of Public Works on or before the first day of July, of each and every year, to report to the City Council the number of said bonds outstanding, with an estimate of the amount necessary to be raised for interest and sinking fund, which statement and estimate shall serve as a basis of assessment by the City Council for the ensuing year for that purpose.

The said special election shall be called, held, conducted and the returns thereof canvassed, in all other respects, as nearly as may be practicable in compliance with the rules, regulations and ordinances governing and controlling the general city elections of said city.

VESSEL RUSHED ON REEF.

Steamer Strathcona Completely Destroyed by Fire.

Halifax, Dec. 25.—Word has been received here from Fort Dufferin, a small coast town sixty miles east of this city, of the destruction by fire of the passenger steamer Strathcona owned by the Halifax and Canso Steamship company, and bound from this port for Canso and Guysborough.

That no lives were lost was due principally to the heroism of the engineers and firemen, who stock to their posts until the steamer was beached, and every one of the 380 passengers landed. In less than an hour she was burned to the water's edge.

The Strathcona left here under the command of Captain Reid. A few hours after leaving port fire was discovered in the after hold. When the cry of fire was raised the wildest confusion prevailed. The passengers clad in their night clothing, rushed on deck and made for the life boats, but the crew prevented a panic.

The boats were not launched, but were made ready for use in case the flames completely enveloped the vessel before land could be reached.

While the Strathcona was driven towards land at top speed, the sailors tried to fight back the flames with streams of water. The draft caused by the steamer's rapid progress, however, fanned the flames into greater fury and in a short time the entire after portion of the steamer was on fire.

Down in the engine room the engineers and firemen stuck bravely to their posts, although the fire had begun to surround them. Not until the keel of the steamer grated on a reef a mile from the main entrance of the harbor did they abandon their dangerous positions and rush to the deck. Then the boats were lowered and all of the passengers, together with the thirteen members of the crew, found safety on shore.

Grants Review of Decision.

Washington, Dec. 26—The supreme court of the United States has decided to grant a review of the decision of the circuit court of appeals for the eighth circuit in the case of P. A. Ingersoll against Joseph A. Coram et. al., involving a claim for a fee of $100,000 by Mrs. Ingersoll's husband, the late Robert G. THE CHRISTMAS TREES.

Methodist and Baptist Churches Held Christmas Trees Thursday Night.

The children of the Methodist and Baptist churches held their Christmas trees Thursday night.

Both entertainments were largely attended, and both were highly enjoyed. The Methodists held their entertainment at the church, and a fine literary program made the feature one of interest to the older people.

The Baptists had no literary feature, but the occasion was one which was greatly enjoyed. It was held in the opera house, instead of the church, as was announced in The Sun of Thursday morning, and was well attended by both the Sunday school attendants and the "grown up" folks. It was an occasion highly enjoyed, and those who had the management of the event in hand are to be congratulated.

As a matter of course there was present at each event old Kris Kringle, with his long beard and shaggy hair, who delivered the presents as the names were called out. He was a source of much merriment for the children and considerable amusement for those who were older.

In all, these entertainments were very successful, and the Christmas of 1906 will be remembered pleasantly by the Methodist and Baptist children of Gainesville.

Christmas Tree at Holy Trinity Church

The annual Christmas tree for the children of Holy Trinity Church will be held at the church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The exercises will consist of a simple Christmas carol service, with a brief address by the Rector, and the collecting of the bee-time mite boxes in which the children have been gathering a missionary offering during the Advent season. After the service the tree will be lighted and the presents distributed and there will be something on the tree not only for the children of the school but for all the children of the congregation, including the babies, and it is hoped that parents and children will be out in force.

A Union Xmas Tree.

The good people of North Gainesville are never behind, and never intend to be, as they are always full of energy and ambition. They combined in an effort to give a Christmas tree, which was held at North Gainesville hold on Wednesday night, and was a grand success. There was a real old "Santa Claus," and he handed out the packages as they were called in a good humor, with a pleasant remark to each one who was fortunate enough to secure a present.

The North Gainesville folks are always progressive, and enjoy themselves in their own circle upon all occasions.

W. B. Rivere, formerly of High Springs but now residing in Sutherland, where he is engaged in farming and trucking, was in the city yesterday, and his old friends were glad to see him. There were none more delighted, however, than the proprietor of The Sun, who has known him for many years. Mr. Rivere's friends will be glad to learn that he is prospering at Sutherland.

The Spring Hill Baptist church, colored, gave a Christmas tree and entertainment at their church on the evening of Wednesday, the 26th inst. The program was appropriate to the occasion and well rendered. There were a number present, including many of the white friends of the church, and the occasion was greatly enjoyed.

Hon. Henry S. Chubb has returned to this city from Winter Park, where he spent Christmas pleasantly with his family. Col. Chubb remembered several of his friends throughout the State by presenting them with some fine fruit from his famous grove, which is one of the finest in Orange county.

Ben Hawthorn, an old resident of Hawthorn, this county, who has been residing at Royal, near Dallas, Texas, for several years, was in the city yesterday. He is on a visit to relatives and friends in this county, and may decide to return here to reside permanently.

L. J. Clyatt of the United States land office has returned from Umatilla, where he has been on a visit to his wife and children, who are spending a few days with Mrs. Clyatt's parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Smith. Mrs. Clyatt and children will return home in a few days.
